APPROVAL OF AGENDA

Approved as published.

PROCLAMATIONS AND CEREMONIES

- 2022 Constitution Week – 16-22 of September

Mayor Starker read the proclamation, which reminded all of the birth of our nation through the ratification of our Constitution.,

PUBLICS' RIGHT TO SPEAK

- a. Public may speak on any matter not on the Agenda for a maximum of 3 minutes under Publics' Right to Speak. Please speak up to be heard when directed by the Mayor.
- b. Members of the Public who wish to speak on a Public Hearing item or Decision, Resolution, or Motion may speak when directed by the Mayor at the conclusion of the staff report for that specific agenda item.
- c. Members of the Public may comment on any agenda item in writing by noon on the day of the meeting at www.WheatRidgeSpeaks.org. Comments made on Wheat Ridge Speaks are considered part of the public record.

Lee Recca, 4475 Brentwood – rose to ask that the City not grant a business license for a new gun store in her neighborhood, which is near a school and Anderson Park. She is concerned that making firearms available so close to these facilities represents a clear and present danger to the public. Any perpetrator could easily attack and then slip into the greenbelt making their escape much easier. These concerns might cause public fear of using their park.

The City Manager introduced our new Manager of Public Works, who delivered a few remarks.

CITY MANAGER'S MATTERS

Mr. Goff thanked his excellent management team and staff for their exemplary work in keeping the City operational during the ongoing cybercrime incident. He reported how it began, how our IT professionals responded immediately and progress to date in restoring files and services. He mentioned some possible milestones for turning on various services. He revealed that the incident is a ransomware attack.

Mr. Goff expressed our sadness and condolences to the City of Arvada and their Police Department upon the death of another Arvada Officer in the line of duty.

City Attorney's Matters

Nothing tonight.

ELECTED OFFICIALS' MATTERS

City Clerk Kirkpatrick announced that a referendum petition has ended the cure period and that the Office of the City Clerk is reviewing these submissions. More information will be announced as needed and timely.

CM Nosler Beck thanked the staff for their outstanding performance during the current IT incident. She recognized Ms. Scheck for her amazing leadership during this time. She also discussed the neighborhood school closings announced 3 weeks ago. Three Wheat Ridge schools are on the list of closures. She asked anyone who wants to get involved to contact her or CM Stites.

CM Hutchinson also thanked Ms. Scheck for her leadership. She sent her sincere condolences to the family of the Arvada Officer and the Police Department.

CM Dozeman expressed similar thoughts and sentiments toward those affected in Arvada. CM Dozeman also thanked the staff for their hard work and leadership during the ongoing cybercrime situation. She the grand re-opening of Caesar Square, supported by $3.5 million in private activity bonds. She and CM Stites attended the ribbon cutting for that event and saw on a tour all of the hard work that so many have done.

CM Stites echoed his peers' remarks and condolences to Arvada and our gratitude to the staff. He commented on the neighborhood school closing, specifically about the process and the ways the public, PTA and families can influence the process. He expressed his concerns and disappointment with the Jeffco Schools and the process they are conducting, especially their lack of public input and their reliance on incomplete, irrelevant, and stale data.

CM Stites and CM Weaver will have a District meeting at 9 am this Saturday in Louise Turner Park, and a dumpster will be available.

CM Ohm supported and agreed with his peers' sentiments. He also made comments about the Jeffco Schools closing plans. He told a story about two women whose lives were propelled forward when they attended Head Start as children. At a recent block party he heard comments from residents about the school closings. He attended a CML meeting recently, where a mayor from another city said a friend had recently moved to Wheat Ridge and loves our City. He read a thank you card he received from a constituent thanking the WR PD.

CM Weaver thanked all the staff again. She repeated the details of the District III meeting. She attended Topping Off ceremony for the new hospital at Clear Creek Crossing and a new business opening. She attended the 50th Anniversary celebration of the founding of Happiness Gardens.

CM Hultin acknowledged the skill, devotion, attitudes and expertise of our staff. She also recognized Ms. Scheck for her outstanding performance. She recounted some pleasant times spent in Happiness Gardens. She is incredibly impressed with the quality of our staff and the outstanding people we continue to hire. District II will hold a district meeting with a dumpster this Saturday as well (44th and Brentwood). CM Hultin also enjoyed attending a recent event where the participants delved into designing affordable housing.

Mayor Starker added his appreciation and thanks. He noted that the team that leaders here formed met the test. He also acknowledged the recent police death in Arvada. He thanked our officers for their work with us. He recounted several recent ribbon cuttings for new business. He thanked those who attended coffee with the Mayor last Saturday. Slow down when you are driving, especially around dusk.

ADJOURNMENT

The City Council Meeting adjourned at 8:00 pm.

Steve Kirkpatrick, City Clerk

APPROVED BY CITY COUNCIL ON Nov. 14, 2022.
